By Vanessa Reyes-Adame 16 Services Marketing

It's the biggest day in football and JR Rockers will be doing it up in a super way. Super Bowl XXXVIII is slated for February 1, 2004, when millions of people are expected to tune-in to the televised game that will determine the world champions of professional football. JR Rockers' management is expecting the viewing party of people to the club for a one-of-a-kind celebration. Two big-screen televisions and twelve 27-inch monitors will be set-up throughout the facility, both inside and out. Hurlburt Field Club members who attend the event will also be qualified to win prizes such as hats, tshirts, football jerseys and even cash. "Our goal this year is to make this Super Bowl the biggest ever," said Terese Harris, JR Rockers' Club Manager.

A chili competition has also been added to this year's festivities: organizers plan to erect tents along the patio for local squadrons and organizations to set-up their booths. Participants will be allowed to sell sample cups for 25-cents with customers voting for the best chili. "It's just a fun competition and a great way for them to make money too, " Ms. Harris said. JR Rockers will be fully staffed with appr employees to accommodate for the football crowd What is not known yet is who will be vying for the world championship title at Houston's Reliant Stadium on February 1, 2004; but whoever it is, it is sure to be a big game.
